ABOUT US

Arihanta Institute, an IRC 501(c)(3) nonprofit California Corporation, is a world-class online institution for education and deeper learning of Jain principles, history, and culture toward application in daily life for the benefit and well-being of individuals and society.

From the introductory level to advanced research, theoretical studies to practical applications, Arihanta Institute brings all communities together, whether born Jain or not, to tackle modern-day issues such as the climate crisis, animal advocacy, social injustice, professional ethics, and personal wellbeing.

Our advanced technology platform and logistical resources enable a rich learning experience that is flexible for modern living and learning styles. Yet, the cornerstone of our offerings will always be the rigorous teaching of the Jain tradition by distinguished and experienced scholars who have excelled in Jain studies and allied fields of inquiry.

AI2023 GALA

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28, 2023

AT ARIA BANQUETS IN MILPITAS, CA

ARIHANTA INSTITUTE invites you to join us for our AI2023 Gala Dinner — an evening of connection and celebration where we will share our vision, achievements, and updates for the future of accessible online learning and higher-education university programs.

In the company of distinguished community members, business leaders, and global Jain scholars, together we will indulge in delicious cuisine, and enjoy a performance by music virtuoso Kummar Chatterjee accompanied by Grammy nominated sitar artist Aloke Dasgupta and accomplished tabla artist Abhijit Kastha, and an inspirational talk by mindset coach and author Rahul Kapoor.

AI2023 is the signature fundraising event of Arihanta Institute. Donations and sponsorships received from this event directly benefit the development of Arihanta Institute's major programs including the Master of Arts in Engaged Jain Studies, our all-ages self-paced online learning platform, as well as the advancement of our academic and community outreach initiatives.

We look forward to sharing an extraordinary night with you and other key members of the Arihanta Institute community. With your support, our mission to become the world's leading Jain educational institution can be realized.
